

Sabrina Diva's Official Biography

Sabrina Diva is a UK-born reggae singer with deep Caribbean roots and an undeniable voice that has resonated from Kingston to London. Her musical journey began under the guidance of Jamaica's most revered rhythm architects; the Riddim Twins, Sly Dunbar & Robbie Shakespeare, alongside executive producer Rorey 'Orville' Baker, earning her the title "First Lady of Taxi Records & One Pop Music." With their mentorship, Sabrina Diva developed a bold, genre-fusing sound rooted in reggae, lovers rock, tropical rhythms, and soul, delivered with her signature glamorous flair.

Sabrina Diva's early career includes the songwriting and vocals behind two Grammy-nominated albums, with her breakout singles "War Downtown" and "Show You Love" gaining global airplay. With many events through-out Reggae Month, performing in Usain Bolts "Tracks & Records" and having headlined multiple shows at Chris Gayle's Triple Century Sports Bar, Sabrina Diva's presence has been felt and recognized. She has opened for reggae powerhouses such as Busy Signal, Spragga Benz, Demarco, and Turbulence and shared stages with the likes of Akon, Kymani Marley, Nadine Sutherland, and Morgan Heritage. Her collaborative credits span reggae royalty including Ce'Cile, Lady Saw, and Turbulence, further cementing her place as a respected artist in the industry.

For the past eight years, Sabrina Diva has also been the official singer and songwriter of the RJR Cross Country Road Show jingle, Jamaica's beloved nationwide music tour. As part of the annual roadshow, she has toured the entire island; performing live across rural and urban communities, giving her national exposure and solidifying her voice as a familiar, uplifting anthem throughout Jamaica.

Sabrina Diva's chart success speaks volumes:

- Artist of the Month on Chaawaa Radio for "Key To Your Heart"
- "So Deep" held the #1 spot for 3 consecutive weeks on the Stevie J Charts Show

In 2025, she continued to break new ground, featuring in the Gregory Isaacs "Cool Ruler the Musical", a major theatrical tribute to the Cool Ruler himself. Her performance has been praised for its authenticity and charisma, showcasing her depth not only as a singer but also as a dynamic live performer.

Sabrina Diva's latest single "Ital Love" made waves immediately, racking up 15,000 views within hours of its release; a roots anthem celebrating empowerment, self-love, and spiritual freedom. Now back in the UK, Sabrina is expanding her brand and legacy, captivating new audiences across the UK and Europe, and stepping into the spotlight with her powerful live show "Reggae Pon Top."

Sabrina Diva is not a newcomer. She's a seasoned voice of this generation of reggae; one that bridges tradition and evolution, glamour and grit, roots and revolution.
